

CITY OF OAKLAND

Mayor's Proclamation

“IN CELEBRATION OF THE APACHE SOFTWARE FOUNDATION 10TH ANNIVERSARY”

WHEREAS, we join in celebrating the Apache Software Foundation 10th anniversary in our beloved city of Oakland; and

WHEREAS, we applaud the dedicated volunteer members and committers of the Apache Foundation for providing more than 100 leading open source technology products free of charge; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the Apache Software Foundation projects embody the highly-emulated, meritocratic, collaborative, consensus-based development process known as “The Apache Way”; and

WHEREAS, the Apache Software Foundation advocates the advancement of openly-developed, quality software through mailing lists, mentoring initiatives, and ApacheCon, its official user conference, trainings, and expo:

NOW THEREFORE, I, Ronald V. Dellums, Mayor of the city of Oakland do hereby declare, Wednesday, November 4, 2009 as:

“APACHE SOFTWARE FOUNDATION DAY”

In the city of Oakland and encourage its recognition and remembrance by all its citizens.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Office of the Mayor to be affixed.

Ronald V. Dellums
RONALD V. DELLUMS
MAYOR OF OAKLAND

